Amend the Law relating to Juries in Ireland.

A.D. 1873.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws relating to juries in Ireland:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and 5 Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Any person who can neither read nor write the English language, or who from lunacy, imbecility of mind, deafness, blindness, or other permanent infirmity shall be unfit to serve as a juror, 10 shall be absolutely freed and exempted from being returned and from serving on any jury, inquest, or inquiry whatsoever. Exempted persons.

2. With respect to the property qualifications of jurors in counties at large, from and after the passing of this Act, and until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy- 15 five, the following provisions shall be in force and have effect; that is to say, Qualification of jurors in counties at large.

(1.) The property qualification of jurors for each county at large mentioned in the first schedule to this Act shall be the net annual value fixed for such county in the said first 20 schedule, instead of the net annual value originally fixed for such county in the fourth schedule to the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871:

(2.) The property qualification of special jurors for each county at large, mentioned in the second schedule to this Act, shall be the net annual value fixed for such county in said 25 second schedule, instead of the net annual value originally fixed for such county in the fifth schedule to the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871.

3. For the purpose of amending the general and special jurors 30 books in use at the time of the passing of this Act, the following provisions shall be in force and have effect: For the purpose of correcting jurors books

The clerk of every poor law union by whom any general list of jurors for a county at large shall have been prepared, shall, within ten days after the passing of this Act, examine, in conjunction with the collector or collectors of poor rate, by whose assistance such list shall have been prepared (who are hereby required to attend him 5 for that purpose when requested by him so to do), every such general list of jurors which shall have been prepared by such clerk for delivery to the clerk of the peace, with a view to ascertain whether any, and if so, what persons returned on each such general list of jurors belong to any of the following classes; that is to say, 10

- (1.) Persons who can neither read nor write the English language:
- (2.) Persons whether qualified or not as to property under the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871, who are not qualified under this Act to serve as a common juror: 15
- (3.) Persons under the age of twenty-one years or above the age of sixty years:
- (4.) Persons not resident in the county for which such general list of jurors was prepared:
- (5.) Persons exempted from serving on juries under this Act or 20 under the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871:
- (6.) Persons disqualified under section seven of the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871:
- (7.) Persons named in each general list of jurors prepared by such clerk of union who possess the proper qualifications of a 25 special juror under this Act:

And every such clerk of poor law union, and collector or collectors, shall make due and diligent inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining the aforesaid particulars, and such clerk shall, within the time aforesaid, make out a return, No. 1 in the form in the third 30 schedule to this Act annexed, of the persons contained in each such general list of jurors, who belong to any of the first six classes above mentioned, and shall also make out a return, No. 2 in the form in the said third schedule, of the persons contained in each such general list of jurors who belong to the seventh class above 35 mentioned, and are not contained in any return No. 1, and shall within the time aforesaid forward the said returns in a registered letter to the clerk of the peace of the county for which such general list of jurors was prepared, with the declarations at the foot or end of each of the said returns, in the said forms set forth, signed and 40 declared respectively by the said clerk, and such collector or collectors respectively; and such clerk shall immediately inform the sessional Crown solicitor of such county, of such returns having been transmitted to the clerk of the peace, and the chairman of such county shall, upon the application of the sessional Crown solicitor, or any person acting on behalf of Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, on the first day of his holding the next summer quarter sessions of the peace, or civil bill court for any division of such county, or such other day of the sitting of his court upon which such application shall be made, proceed to correct and amend the general jurors book and special jurors book of such county, and upon production of the returns No. 1 transmitted by the clerk of union as aforesaid, which are hereby declared to be prima facie evidence that the names of the several persons therein contained ought not to appear in the general jurors book or special jurors book, as the case may be, such chairman shall then and there order such general jurors book or special jurors book to be forthwith corrected or amended by expunging therefrom the name of each person contained in any such return No. 1 as aforesaid, unless he is satisfied upon sworn testimony or any other evidence satisfactory to him that such person is duly qualified as to property to serve as a juror, and not exempted or disqualified; and the said chairman upon production of the returns, No. 2 transmitted by the clerk of the union as aforesaid, which are hereby declared to be prima facie evidence that any person whose name is not contained in any of the said returns No. 2 is not qualified to serve as a special juror, unless such person is the son of a peer, a baronet, knight, or magistrate, or the eldest son of a baronet, knight, or magistrate, shall then and there order such special jurors book to be forthwith corrected or amended by expunging therefrom the name of every person contained in said special jurors book, which does not appear on some one of the returns No. 2, unless such person is the son of a peer, a baronet, knight, or the eldest son of a baronet, knight, or magistrate, or unless he is satisfied upon sworn testimony or any other evidence satisfactory to him, that such person is qualified as to property to serve as a special juror, and is not exempted or disqualified, and whenever the name of any person who is qualified as a common juror under this Act is expunged from the special jurors book as herein-before directed, the general jurors book shall then be amended by striking out the word "special" opposite to the name of every such person, and if any panel of jurors shall have been taken from any general jurors book or special jurors book before the chairman shall have caused the said names to be expunged therefrom, it shall be lawful for the judge of the court for which such panel shall have been returned, and he is hereby required upon being informed in writing or orally by the clerk of the Crown, clerk

A.D. 1873. of the peace, sessional Crown solicitor, or any person acting on behalf of Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, that the name of any person contained in such panel has been expunged from the general jurors book or special jurors book, to cause the name of such person to be expunged from such panel, and thereupon notice shall be given 5 by the sheriff to such person that he is discharged from further attendance as a juror upon such court.

Powers to correct jurors books may be exercised by any judge, &c.

4. All the powers under section fifteen of the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871, of ordering a general jurors book or special jurors book to be corrected or amended, may be exercised by any judge at any 10 time during the sitting of his court, upon sworn testimony or any other evidence or information satisfactory to such judge, and shall extend to and include the expunging from any general jurors book or special jurors book, as the case may be, of the name of any person contained therein who may be exempted from serving on 15 juries under this Act, though not so exempted under the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871, and shall, until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, extend to and include the expunging from any jurors book of the name of any person contained therein, who, although qualified as to property under the 20 Juries Act (Ireland), 1871, is not qualified under this Act to serve as a common or special juror, as the case may be.

Forms of precept.

5. The precepts of the several clerks of the peace for the return of lists of jurors to be issued in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, under the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 25 1873, shall be according to the forms in the third schedule to this Act annexed, and every person to whom any such precept shall be issued shall and is hereby directed to perform and comply with all the requisitions contained in such precept.

Power to judge to excuse jurors from serving.

6. Whereas doubts have been entertained as to the power of 30 judges to excuse jurors from serving, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: It is hereby declared and enacted, that it shall be lawful for the judge, if he shall so think fit, of any court before which any person may be summoned as a juror to discharge such person from further attendance on such court, or to excuse such 35 person from attendance for any period during the sittings of such court.

Names of persons summoned as grand jurors at quarter sessions not to be in-

7. Whenever the sheriff or other officer shall select persons to be returned to serve as grand jurors at any general sessions of the peace or at the sittings of the court of oyer and terminer and 40 general gaol delivery to be holden at Green Street, Dublin, he shall not initial in any jurors book the names of the persons so selected to serve as grand jurors as aforesaid, and in preparing any subsequent panel of jurors, such sheriff or officer shall not omit to take the name of any person whom he may have previously thereto selected and summoned to serve as such grand juror as aforesaid on account of his having already summoned such person to serve as such grand juror.
